

WYNNE TELLS OF THE BIRTH OF A SON TO MR. AND MRS. J. SOMERS SMITH, JR.—SHE ATTENDS THE TEA GIVEN FOR MISS MARY LOUISE WHITE AT THE RITS-CARLTON

WHAT a pretty girl Katherine Dunn has gotten to be. I saw her on the street in the other day in a lavender tweed suit and a straw hat of the same color, trimmed with a bunch of lilacs and a fair complexion. She is the daughter of this winter she has been working hard at a secretarial course. I haven't heard definitely whether she will continue to work or whether she will go to college. Her mother is Miss Margaret Shippen, a daughter of the late Dr. Edward Shippen, and an aunt is Mrs. Frederick Fick, who was Miss Kate Shippen, the daughter of Mrs. George Willing, died last summer.

WASN'T it interesting to hear that the "Jas." Smiths have a small son, born Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Smith are living out in Chestnut Hill in an attractive little white house on the corner of Belmont street and Mermaid lane. Russell Thayer, Jr., who is a son of the late Dr. Edward Shippen, and a son of the late Dr. Edward Shippen, who is living in Philadelphia, is the guest of the Smiths for a time several years in the past. Mrs. Smith was Katherine Hanck, and has been active in the Society for Organizing Charities, who is in charge of the Philadelphia, and is the daughter of Mrs. George Willing, who is one of the most popular boys out of Penn.

THE tea which Mr. Thomas Raeburn White gave for his daughter, Mary Louise, was the first of the season. In other years there have been spring teas, though none were as early as this one. Last spring Marian Watts, the Henry Miller Watts' daughter, however, had her coming-out dance in Easter week, and it was lots of fun. I think it's a good idea to have parties early. It's much more exciting to tea now than in the late fall, when there will be so many.

Mrs. Louise looked very dainty in a white crepe remaine dress trimmed with silver. The tea was at the Rits, and the rooms were filled with lovely flowers. A great many of them were pink.

HAVE you noticed the light motor-trucks on "station wagons," if that is their official title, everywhere these days? As I was leaving the Whitehall races last Saturday, I saw the three Leiper children going by in one. They all wore pink coats and tan hats, and their yellow curls were streaming in the breeze. They are the daughters of the Gerry Leipers, of Chestnut Hill, and they were especially interested in the races, as their father had several horses entered. The oldest one is Polly, I don't know what the others are called.

The Victor Mathers have a truck, too, and almost any day you can see it bounding along the country roads with Behn Mather at the wheel. She generally has Little Thomson with her, and the back seat overflowing with small boys, the little Mather boy and his friends, suppose. Mrs. Billy Taylor, who was Pauline Maynard, of Knoxville, Tenn., and is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Charles Willing, who was Marian Watts, drives one, too, and Mrs. Margaret and Giga Earle, the Edgar Pardee Earle's daughters. I think Florence Kane also has one. They are certainly most useful, for they hold so many people.

THE Saturday Evening Dancing Class will meet tonight in the foyer of the Academy. Mrs. George McCadden, Mrs. D. Moreau Barringer, Mrs. B. Franklin Pepper and Mrs. George Clark will receive. There will be no cotillon, just general dancing, but there will be a "Floor Committee." George Hunt will be the chairman. The class will be assisted by Minor Clark, H. Douglas Paxson, Jr., Walter S. Hobart and Blonniey Wilson.

There will be quite a number of dinners before the class. Among those who will entertain will be Mrs. John Kenton Eisenberg, of Villanova, who will give a dinner for her daughter, Mrs. Blonniey Wilson, and Mrs. George Peterson, of Ardmore, a dinner, followed by dancing, for Verner Peterson, who will be a debutante next winter. Mrs. J. H. Merion, a dinner for her daughter, Marion.
